Dungeons & Dragons for Teens Every Thursday, 4-6pm

D&D is a cooperative game that combines improv, math, social skills, & fantasy/adventure stories. Ages 13-17 are welcome to attend. If there is enough demand, we may continue playing weekly. We will be using the original 5th edition of D&D and creating basic level one characters to start with. Sessions will be run by the Library Director and will be rated PG-13. There is no cost. Teens should RSVP by calling 920-295-6777 or emailing director@princetonpublib.org.

Libraries at the Fair: Thurs. July 31—Sun. August 3

Come out to the Green Lake County Fair this weekend! Markesan Library will put on a Story Time on Thurs. July 31st at 10:30am. We will be decorating a booth in the exhibit building with the fair's Candy Land theme and showcasing the photo contest sponsored by all 5 of the county's libraries. No fee to attend.

Mystery Book Club Wed. Aug. 6th, 9:30am

Join us to discuss a new book every month! There is no fee and all are welcome. August's book will be Things We Do in the Dark by Jennifer Hillier "Paris Peralta is suspected of killing her celebrity husband - she knows she'll be charged with murder. But as bad as this looks, it's not what worries her the most." Pick up a copy at the library. September's book will be "Raising Hare" by Chloe Dalton.

Woodcarving Demonstration Tuesday August 12th, Drop in any time 1-3pm

Meet Princeton's local whittlers, woodcarvers, and wood burners. They'll show you what they're making, and how to get started! They'd love for you to join them. The Princeton Carvers usually meet at the American Legion (853 W. Main Street, Princeton) on Tuesdays from 8-11 a.m. They encourage anyone to hang out with them and work on any type of craft project. They usually make a $2 daily donation to the Legion.

What is AI? Free Presentation Wednesday August 13th, 6pm

You've been hearing a lot about Artificial Intelligence - but what exactly is it? In the last year, we've seen its power multiply immensely. What can we expect, both in benefits and in negative consequences, from this rapidly growing technology?

Senior Help: ADRC Thursday August 21st, 9-11am

Kristen Dorsch from the Green Lake County Aging and Disability Resource Center will be here today from 9-11am to tell people about what she can do for seniors.
