Tues. July 2nd, 10am-6pm: Make Your Own Muppet

Inspired by the creatures of the "Labyrinth" movie.

Drop in and create a furry or feathery Muppet or puppet creature ready for you to take on adventures! All ages are welcome, but this craft is best suited for age 8 and up. All materials are provided. No charge.

Wednesday, July 3rd, 9:30am: Mystery Book Club

Discuss a new book every month! Led by Vicki Duhr. All are welcome.

This month's book is "Triptych" by Karin Slaughter—pick up a copy at the library.

The Library is CLOSED Thursday July 4th—Sunday July 7th for Independence Day

Thursday July 11th, 5-7pm: Mini Fairy Gardens

If you love miniatures and gardening, this program is for you! Create your own little fairy world with our tiny animals, succulents, and accessories.

Please bring a decorative container with dirt to house your fairy garden.

For best results, your container should be wide but shallow.

Teens and Adults Only. Limited seating (10). RSVP: call 920-295-6777.

Wed. July 17th, 5-9 pm: Knight Night

Join us to celebrate the end of another great summer reading adventure!

Campfire & Marshmallow Roast 8:30pm

All reading logs must be turned in today, and raffle tickets claimed.

Thurs. July 18th, 2pm: Welcome to Medicare Presentation

Lisa Zimmerman from the Aging and Disability Resource Center will help those navigating the Medicare system, especially those who are newly enrolled or who will be enrolling. This program is free, but you MUST RSVP by calling Lisa at 920-294-4070 or emailing lzimmerman@greenlakecountywi.gov.

Wed. July 24th, 5:30pm: Caregiving for Dementia Presentation

Lisa Zimmerman from the Aging and Disability Resource Center will give a presentation designed to help the caregivers of local residents who have dementia. We want to help caregivers recognize and respond appropriately to symptoms of dementia. Learn how to re-direct dementia patients who are fixated on an idea, how to comfort them when they are anxious, and ways you can avoid burnout. This program is free, but you MUST RSVP by calling Lisa at 920-294-4070 or emailing lzimmerman@greenlakecountywi.gov.
