Wednesday 1st, 9:30am: Mystery Book Club

Join us in discussing "The Scarecrow" by Michael Connelly.

Saturday 4th, 11am-1pm: Dr. Seuss's Birthday Party

Bring the family for a craft, snacks, and readings. Free!
Activities are geared towards younger children, but all ages are welcome.

Wednesday 8th, 5:30pm: Friends of the Library meeting

Please join us in planning this year's volunteer events! We need helping hands.

Wednesdays at 1pm: Planning Ahead for the End of Life

Do you have you a legal and medical power of attorney? Is your will complete? What can you do to ensure your last wishes are honored? This is a FREE six-session course which focuses on a different subject each day, and features visits from local experts. It is taught by Katie Gellings from the UW Extension offices. Classes are held every Wednesday from 1pm- 2:30pm February 15th - March 22nd. Please RSVP.

Tuesday 14th, 4-5pm: Medicare Class

Are you confused about Medicare? Attend this free class!

Wednesday 15th: Eggs Arrive (and it's Bill's Birthday!)

Starting today we're hatching chicks!

Which egg will hatch first?? Check our incubator frequently.
Happy Birthday Bill! Make sure to tell him a great joke today.

Saturday the 18th, 11am- Noon: Smartphone Basics

Get for one-on-one instruction and help with your smart phone.
This class is part of a three-part series specifically geared towards senior and the technology-challenged. Attend one or all. Please RSVP.
This class is sponsored and taught by Bug Tussel University.

Wednesday 29th, 6pm: Flea Market Food Booth Meeting

Non-profit groups interested in reserving the flea market food stand for fund-raising must send a registration form to the chamber by March 15th and send at least one representative to the meeting here at the library.

March 27-31st, 1-7pm: Spring Break Crafternoons!

Kids and families are invited to come down and do free crafts this week!
Try lightning bug bottles, egg shell art, jewelry making, and more.

Save money,
eat healthy,
help pollinators:
grow your own
food with our free
SEED LIBRARY!
