Tues. March 17th, 6pm: Princeton on TV! Discover WI Screening

The Princeton Chamber of Commerce has funded a wonderful TV episode about our community on Discover Wisconsin! Stop by tonight to view the episode that highlights our artistic and charming community before it goes live. Light refreshments served. No need to RSVP.

Wed. March 18th, 10am-noon: Eldercare Outreach

Green Lake County Elder Benefit Specialist Kristine Biesenthal will be available to answer your questions. She can assist Green Lake County residents age 60 and better with a variety of topics including Medicare, Social Security, Food Share and Medicaid. No appointment is needed.

Thurs. March 19th, 6pm: Sour Dough Starter Class

Have you ever wanted to make your own sour dough bread, but was afraid to try? Lisa Isensee will help us work through the process, easy-peasy! You'll go home with a starter you can use. There's no fee, but to make sure we have enough supplies for everyone, PLEASE RSVP by calling 920-295-6777. Please bring a glass jar with a sealable lid to the class if you can.

~~Sat. March 21st, 10am-2pm: Hands-on History~~ — Cancelled

Thurs. March 26th, 6pm: Flea Market Food Booth Meeting

Civic groups who are members of the Princeton Chamber of Commerce are invited to come to this meeting to work out which groups will do the flea market food booth on which days. This is a great opportunity to plan fundraising for local nonprofits. Prices, food safety, and other topics will be addressed as well.

We're hatching baby chicks! Guess which one will hatch first and win a prize. Help us name them! Learn chicken science at the incubation station.
