Adults at all skill levels are welcome at this fun, hour-long program. Each week we will complete a different project, slowly building our skills. However, anyone can drop in during any week and should face no difficulty in completing a project. This class is ultimately focused on having a good time and relaxing time. No RSVP is required, there is no fee, and all supplies are provided.

Wed. Feb. 25th, 3pm: Jellyfish

Fri. Feb. 20th, 2pm: Meet Benjamin Franklin

Portrayed by professional historical reenactor Terry Kutz, "Dr. Franklin" will talk about his work with Revolutionary leaders like Washington, Jefferson, and Adams, as well as his upcoming trip to France, where he will be soliciting French support for the patriot cause. As the oldest signer of the Declaration of Independence, Dr. Franklin brought wit and wisdom to a young country striving for freedom. Dr. Franklin will be dressed in period-accurate attire, and answer any questions you may have about his life. This is one of a series of programs to honor our country's 250th anniversary in 2026.

Fri. Feb. 27th, 4pm: Sensory Hour with Children's Wisconsin

Bring your little one for a fun, hands-on hour of play. We'll do a craft, explore sensory bins, and socialize. No charge, no need to RSVP.
