Fri. 28th: Merry Christmas In Princeton!

The Library will be open extended hours today (9- 7pm) to celebrate our city's annual tradition.

From 4pm onwards, we will have movies, snacks, and holiday crafts for kids at no charge.

Starting at 6pm, the Lights on Water Street holiday parade will go past the library.

Look for the Friends of the Library marching in it!

After the parade, we will hold our traditional children's book giveaway.

One new gently used book will be given to each child until supplies are gone. Donations welcome!
